Town and Country.

SPORTSMEN may now shoot quail.

MONDAY and Tuesday mornings were not of a sweltering character in this locality.

W. W. McMONIES, the Confectioner, is in Pittsburgh looking after holiday attractions.

The children and dealers in holiday goods are beginning to think tenderly of each other.

Hoo killing has commenced, and many are already traveling through green for their health.

ROBT. DUFFINGTON and his favorite horse George, have parted at last. Done gone traded away.

THE epizootic still affects the majority of horses in this locality. Some are seriously ill from it.

For Thanksgiving—a full stock of everything good, at JERSON'S. 11-18-79

It is a cruel joke to tell a man who has just set down on the pavement that this is the fall of the year.

FOUND—On the night of the Republican jubilation, a musket, cont. of good material. The owner can have the same by paying forthwith notice.

The numerous "Friends of Mrs. Rev. J. G. Black, of Rock Hill, Me." will be glad to learn that she is rapidly recovering from a recent dangerous illness.

MOUNTAIN BUREAU—A large lot just in—pure good, at JERSON'S.

At the Presbyterian Elders' Convention, held in Bellevue on Tuesday, Wm. Alexander, of Bristol, presided, and John A. Grove acted as Secretary.

THE annual prospectus of the Scientific American has been forwarded to the publisher. It is one of the most valuable papers published in the country. In its special field it is unsurpassed.

The Enterprise states that "a society for the promotion of good manners is badly needed in Barnesville." It might be extended to this region without detriment.

JOHN T. NORRIS, north of town, sold most of his personal effects at public auction on Tuesday last, and expects to remove his family to this place in a short time.

FRANCIS BIEDENBACH, wife and child were buried in one grave on Monday, the 8th inst. Mrs. Betsy Stephens and little boy were buried in one grave the same day—Woodfield Spirit.

WM. DEMENT, aged 16 years, son of Wm. Dement, Barnesville, while attempting to board a freight train in motion, on Wednesday last week, was thrown under the trucks and cut to pieces.

WIDE-AWAKE is one of the most charming Magazines for boys and girls, published. The interesting year it is especially attractive in its departments. Specimen free. Address: D. Lethrop & Co., publishers, Boston, Mass.

We learn that Mr. D. H. Tweedy and family, occupying the dwelling house owned by Eliza Sidwell, have concluded to remain for the present. It was currently reported long since that they would remove to their old homestead in Jefferson county.

THOUSANDS of ladies to-day cherish grateful remembrances of the help derived from the use of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. It positively cures all female complaints. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

BUT few farmers are doing husking their corn crops as yet. The greater part of the corn in this region of country is in the shock, and the fodder, a great portion of the time, has been so dry and brittle that many a way must be taken to husk it.

GOSPEL TRUTH.

He that is sure for a stranger, shall smart for it. But he that trusteth in Spring Blossom for curing liver, kidney, complaints of a like tendency, shall never be disappointed. Price 50 cents, trial bottles 10 cents.

WHILE the poultry of the country stuffs itself from the crits and garners of the old farmers, said farmers or their representatives, are rapidly taking orders from many of our citizens for the carcasses of said poultry for decoration purposes, about the 25th of this month—Thanksgiving.

A SHOOTING GALLERY is the latest addition to Bridgeport's amusement resorts.

THE fattened turkey will suffer for the Republican and Democrat alike next week.

FINE—Evaporated Peaches by the box or pound at JERSON'S.

HON. CHAS. HARE, for many years a prominent citizen of Noble county, has removed to Kansas.

WM. WOOTEN, a colored man, is one of the regular pit jurors at the present term of the Guernsey common pleas.

PATTON'S Drug Store.

NEW subscribers to the CHRONICLE will receive the paper until Jan. 1, 1880, for $2. Tell your friends of this offer.

A DEBT of $1600 upon the Disciples' church at Bellevue, has been liquidated by members of that organization during the past six months.

Lanterns, Buckeye; Buckeye Improved; Buckeye Junior; Globes for Lanterns, at (31) PATTON'S Drug Store.

We noticed Mr. James Shepherd, Sr., of Morristown, in attendance at Court this week. Although still somewhat disabled from a recent paralytic stroke he is able to get around, and accepts the situation like a philosopher.

COMMUNION SERVICES will be held in the M. E. church of this place on Sunday, Dec. 8th. The Rev. C. B. Henthorne, of the Morristown Circuit, will be present and conduct the service in the absence of the Presiding Elder.

A FARMER'S PAPER.—We ask attention to the advertisement of THE OHIO FARMER of Cleveland, Ohio, in this issue of our paper, and recommend it as one of the oldest and most valuable agricultural and family papers of the country.

OH MY BACK!

Jacob Lockman, 724 Clinton street, N. Y., says he has been using Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for Rheumatism; he had such a lame back he could not do anything, but one bottle has, to use his own expression, "sewed him up," he thinks it the best thing in the market.

An unknown man called at the house of Mr. John Apple at Wellsboro, on Friday night, and his knock was answered by Miss Ursula Apple, a young lady 20 years old. Without saying a word, the villain dashed a quantity of all of vitriol in her face, ran screaming with pain into the house and the distant field. Her face is terribly burned, one eye closed, and it is feared that both eyes are injured. Her assailant was so disguised as to defy recognition.

PROF. GUS. FOX, the well-known musician, will organize a class in this place shortly for instruction in the piano, organ and violin. Mr. Fox will call upon our music-loving folks within the coming month, when it is hoped he will receive liberal patronage. Mr. Fox makes a specialty of piano tuning.

The Probate Judge issued the following marriage licenses during the week ending Tuesday:

James A. Giffen and Jennie Cooke; John W. Lamp and Rebecca A. Palmer; Hanson Evers and Loretta McMullen; Geo. W. Snyder and Catherine Moore; Ben. Stidd and Rebecca E. Hamilton; David A. McKim and Ella A. Coss; Francis M. Taggart and Mary A. Henderson.

DR. ISAAC B. ALLEN, who will be remembered by many of the old residents of this township as having resided near the Richmond M. E. church, on the farm now owned by Coleman McGee, over twenty-five years ago, died at his home, Casey, Clark county, Ill., about a month since, aged seventy-six years. Deceased removed to Beallsville from this county where he practiced medicine, and from thence to New York City, and then to Illinois.

REFERRING to the recent atrocious murder in Monroe county, the Woodsfield Spirit says:

It is now asserted that Mrs. Biedenbach was in the house when her husband commenced his murderous work, that she escaped and was pursued by her husband and overtaken 300 yards from the house, where her body was found. The first blow was struck from behind, and cut down through the back of the head. Then a fierce struggle commenced, but the superior strength of Biedenbach overpowered that of his wife. She had long hair which he must have caught repeatedly, as bunches of it were found lying about on the ground.

MARY L. STEPHENS, the only survivor of the five persons struck down by Francis Biedenbach, is improving and will get well. The blows she received were glancing ones, and did not fracture the skull, as was first announced.

AN interesting temperance meeting was held in the Presbyterian Church on last Saturday evening. Addresses were made by Revs. Alexander, Balph and Conkle and Dr. John Alexander. We believe that the object of the meeting was to counsel together as to the best method to prevent the spread of intemperance, especially among the young men and boys of this vicinity. It was avowed, and we believe facts sustain the avowal, that drunkenness among young people of this vicinity was alarmingly on the increase. It is high time that the people should move to check this evil. Just what course should be pursued is a matter worthy of consideration. A rigid enforcement of the law—prosecution heaped upon prosecution of offenders, would go far to remedy some of the evils accruing from the sale of liquors. There is room within the present law for the sale of all the liquor and more than is required for the well-being of a community. Dealers who do not voluntarily obey the letter and spirit of the law, should be dealt with rigorously.

HON. DANIEL PECK, of Wheeling, was in town yesterday, looking hale and hearty.

MR. ROBERT COLLINS, from Lafayette College, Pa., is enjoying a vacation at his home in this place.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for December is upon our table. It is a striking number, presenting many novel and interesting features.

THE LEADER printing establishment of Wheeling, was purchased at public sale one day last week for $3450, by Dana L. Hubbard.

THE leading newspapers and periodicals furnished with the CHRONICLE for the ensuing year at reduced rates. Now is the time to subscribe.

The children of Clay Henderson, the man charged with burning Riley's barn, in Washington township, were sent to the Children's Home last week.

The well-known Methodist clergyman, Rev. Dr. Wheeler, editor of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, will deliver an address in this place, some time in January.

With this number we cease sending the CHRONICLE to campaign subscribers. We shall be glad to continue the paper to all such until Jan. 1st, 1880, for the low price of $2.

Notice.

LOST—A note of hand in my favor for $600, signed by Daniel Harris. All persons are hereby warned not to negotiate the same.

SAMUEL GELLER.

President T. E. Clark and Sec'y C. W. Carroll, started on Tuesday to prospect for rolling stock for the new St. Clairsville and Northern railway. They will visit Wilmington, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh car shops and locomotive works.

It is stated that owing to ill health and for other causes County Commissioner Potts will tender his resignation as Commissioner at the next meeting of the Board. In such event it is probable that Commissioner Frasher will be appointed to fill the vacancy.

GODEY'S Lady's Book for the year 1881 will be more than ordinarily attractive. The prospectus in another column offers special inducements. The CHRONICLE and Lady's Book to new subscribers at the low price of $3 50.

A HIDDEN on some of the public work named Smith, and Lentz, one of the Commissioners of Monroe county, had an altercation which grew out of Smith calling the Commissioner "a liar" one day last week. Smith got the worst of the fight and cried for quarter.

MR. A. P. HEATON, the collector for the Barnesville Enterprise, who has been stopping for a day or two in this place, was relieved on Tuesday night of $70. Just how he lost it we are not advised, but we understand that it is claimed that he was the victim of some well-known light-fingered gentlemen.

A LAWSUIT of considerable dimensions is brewing between the Trustees of the original stockholders of the Burr's Mills camp-meeting grounds and the present Trustees of the camp-meeting association. The former claim that they have been defrauded of the title to the ground. A lively contest which is not likely to benefit the church in this locality will be the result.

Hopedale Normal College.

The Winter Term of this Institution will begin on Tuesday, November 30. For particulars concerning the preparatory and collegiate departments, the advantages of pursuing studies not taught in other colleges, superior boarding facilities, etc., address:

WM. BRINKERHOFF, Hopedale, Harrison Co., Ohio.

We call the attention of our readers to the announcement of the PITTSBURGH CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, in another column. THE ADVOCATE is the official organ and home paper of the M. E. church in this locality, and should be patronized by all Methodists who wish to keep informed in matters pertaining to the Church of their choice. It will be sent from now until the close of next year, for a year's subscription—Two Dollars. Send for a sample copy.

LOOK HERE!

THE CHRONICLE will be sent to new subscribers from the present date until Jan. 1, 1880, for $2.00. Our patrons will add the Republican cause by bringing this offer to the notice of their friends. Now is the time to subscribe.

A MARRIAGE NOTICE in the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate of this week, runs as follows: "Nov. 11, at the residence of C. N. Thorpe, Esq., Philadelphia, by Rev. A. H. Hittchenbach, D. D., Rev. M. Thoburn, D. D., of Calcutta, India, to Anna T. daughter of Abraham Jones, of Kingston, Ohio." The best wishes of the many friends and warm admirers of the Doctor hereabouts will follow him and his bride to their foreign home.

FREE BOOK.—By reference to the advertisement in another place, it will be observed that we have arranged to furnish the CHRONICLE and Cincinnati Weekly Commercial to patrons of the CHRONICLE for the low price of $2.00 per year, and give to each subscriber FREE either of the ten books specified. Here is an offer which should be taken advantage of by all those who want desirable reading matter for the coming year with small outlay.

COMMISSIONERS Frasher and Meehan held the November session of the Board on Tuesday. Auditor Coffland's office was approved. Clerk of Court Darragh's official bond of $15,000, with Walter Darragh, David Darragh, John A. Thompson and Wm. J. Thompson as sureties thereon, was accepted and approved. The Auditor was authorized to notify the Trustees of the different townships of the amount of Central Ohio railroad stock transferred to each township in accordance with an act of the Legislature and the distribution as made by Auditor Coffland and I. M. Riley, Esq. Commissioner Meehan was authorized to have a wooden bridge placed on the abutments of Whisky Run Bridge.

A LIBERAL offer to our Subscribers.

We have made arrangements to furnish THE OHIO FARMER, one of the oldest, largest and most valuable weekly agricultural and family journals in America, with THE CHRONICLE, both one year, postage paid, for only $3.50.

A DELIGHTFUL social event was the reception given on last Friday evening by Mrs. Elizabeth Kennon, assisted by her daughter Miss Lizzie, and her son Mr. N. K. Kennon, at the residence on Marietta street. The affair was in honor of Mr. F. W. Bainbridge, of Toledo, and his bride Miss Ella Thompson of this place. About sixty guests were in attendance, and the evening was one of our most brilliant society people. At ten o'clock an elegant supper was served. The occasion was a brilliant one, reflecting much credit upon the hospitality of the hostess.

REWARD OF PERSEVERANCE.

Henry Clement, Altoona, writes: "For a long time I was troubled with chronic rheumatism, at times wholly disabled, tried anything and everything recommended, but failed to get any benefit until a gentleman who was cured of Rheumatism by Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil told me about it. I began using it last internally and externally, and before two weeks were used I was radically cured. We find it a household medicine, and for cramp, burns, cuts and bruises, it has no equal."

Every Family, without Exception.

In City, Village, and Country, will find it highly useful to constantly read the AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST. It abounds in plain, practical, reliable information, valuable for the farmer as well as the out-door work and comfort, and its 800,000 Original Engravings in every volume are both pleasing and instructive. In this respect it is pre-eminent and unapproachable. It should have a place in every household, no matter how many other journals are taken. Its illustrated Department for Youth and Children contains much information as well as amusement. Its Household Expenses are invaluable to all classes. The test is very low, only $1.50 from now to the end of 1881, or four copies for $5. Single numbers, 15 cents. One specimen, gratis. Take our advice and subscribe now for volume 40 (1881). Orange Judd Company, Publishers, 245 Broadway, New York.
